

SPSGH 2013
In association with the APA Central Division
February 26-March 1, 2014
Palmer House Chicago

Thursday, February 27
9:00-12:00

Ethnonationalism, World Spirit, Genocide

Moderator: James R. Watson, philosophy emeritus, Loyola University, New Orleans.

Morgan Rempel, Philosophy, University of Southern Mississippi.
“Posen, Ethnonationalism, and the Morality of Genocide”

Eric Katz, Philosophy, New Jersey Institute of Technology.
“Technology, Environment, and the Swastika: The Domination of Nature and Genocide”

André Mineau, Université du Québec à Rimouski, Canada.
“American Jewish Responses to German Ethnonationalism”

7:45-10:45 pm

Ethnonationalism and the Persistence of Genocide Denial in Bosnia and Herzegovina: Obstacles to “Existence”

Co-sponsored by the Bosnian-American Genocide Institute and Education Center, Chicago, Illinois.

Moderator: David Pettigrew, Philosophy, Southern CT State University.

Preliminary statements by genocide survivors: Mirsad Causevic, Senada Cvrk Pargan, and Ferid Sefer.

Sanja Drnovsek, Director, Bosnian-American Genocide Institute and Education Center, Chicago.
“Prohibited Memorials and Genocide Denial”

David Pettigrew, Philosophy, Southern CT State University.
“The Role of Religion and Ethnonationalism in Genocide Denial: Engineering a Zone of Exclusion”